

Marnie
Rudd

ACCESS CONSULTANT

Key professional experience

Marnie has over 12 years' experience in the Architecture industry and has been involved in a diverse range of projects including hospitality, commercial, health and residential. She has worked on various stages of design and construct developments projects of varying scales and built environments.

Marnie's interest in accessibility coupled with her architecture background ensures detailed attention to projects and ensuring equal opportunities to access and participate in the built environment. She is working to provide specialist advice compliance without losing sight of the functional needs of people living with disabilities.

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Architecture (Honors), RMIT, Melbourne, 1998
- Diploma of Access Consulting, Access Institute, Melbourne 2024
- Diploma of Applied Science – Architectural Drafting RMIT, 1994
- Certificate IV in Workplace Assessment and Training

Contact

Mobile: 0422 258 843
Email: marnie.rudd@philipchun.com